

New Testament Hyper-Concordance

The Hyper-Concordance is an experiment in word-based navigation through the New Testament. Each content word is hyperlinked to a page displaying all the verses for that word, preserving context and tightly connecting the content.

The Home Page has a brief description and provides a good launching point.

The detailed description includes background and philosophy.